M-Files creates superior customer experiences and boosts employee satisfaction by making remote collaboration a snap with a metadata-driven, repository-neutral, and AI-powered platform.

RETURN ON INVESTMENT

According to a Forrester report, customers realized an ROI of nearly 270% by deploying M-Files. In addition, customers reported an improvement in categorization and indexing of documents by 60%, as well as enhancement of compliance and auditing process by 20-25%.

OUR CUSTOMERS SAY

"M-Files had a major impact on the business almost immediately and credits two specific product attributes: Templates and metadata-driven searchability. We saved over $75,000 worth of man-hours by just utilizing templates in the first 6-8 months. Since then, we've saved hundreds of thousands of dollars annually in time."

TROY ADAMS
Director of Business Technology
VDA

"It's really reduced the amount of time we've spent—wasted time—trying to locate a document. Just being able to quickly and efficiently find documents has been the number-one impact. M-Files has reduced total document search times by 90 percent."

ALEX SIEFERT
Applications Manager
Bridges Trust

"M-Files has become a true enterprise-class solution for us. We manage almost one million documents with M-Files. We have more than 500 users across seven departments—and we're growing. We have saved the equivalent of 900 trees and $1.5 million to date."
